Walking Down Main Street

THEME

You—our parents, teachers and friends, have taken us on many shopping tours and have helped us over many rough spots during our formative years. Now, we would like to guide you, and take you on a window shopping spree down Main Street.

Here you will see many familiar sights, sights that meant much to us, and perhaps spark the fire of reminiscence in you. It is much the same as any well-traveled street. Most of it is firmly imbedded in the mind, and yet it always reveals a new and gratifying view.

Now... Under New Management

MR. FRED LANDOLPHI
Principal

As is customary with any enterprise when leadership changes hands, there is an initial period during which the new "management" is engaged in a general survey for the purpose of better acquainting itself with the resources available for maintaining or strengthening the institution.

This initial survey in the case of "South Side, Inc." has been, in the main, a heartening one. It has revealed sturdy capital resources which include a capable and conscientious staff, an alert and cooperative student body and, equally important, an overall program of studies and activities, which to an important degree reflects the ideals and aspirations of both.

To those pupil members of the firm who will be leaving us this year to become adult members of "U.S.A., Inc."—go our most cordial best wishes for happiness and success in the tasks which lie ahead. To those who have just recently entered "South Side, Inc."—may your achievements and happiness during your stay here equal, and if possible even exceed, those of your predecessors in this enterprise.

MR. JOSEPH CELIANO
Vice-Principal

I, as a graduate of South Side, know that our school is a wise shopper's paradise. For the person who is looking for "real values", there are many to be found. There is an attractive and varied program of studies and extra-curricular activities from which each pupil is free to choose. The excellent staff of salesmen, your teachers and counselors, can best advise you from which courses and activities you will derive the most benefit. They are best qualified to help you select that individual pattern of studies which, like a carefully chosen suit of clothes, will do the most for you as an individual and make you look your best at all times. Be a wise shopper in high school for those subjects, those extra-curricular activities, those companions, which will contribute most to your growth and development. As your vice-principal, I am eager to be of friendly assistance in making these choices. Be a successful person who is attractive and poised because you have developed your abilities to their fullest extent; because by wise shopping you have discovered the "real values" in your school life at South Side.

Traffic Control . . .

DR. PHILIP GORDON
Chief

Over one hundred students constitute pretty heavy traffic, but Dr. Philip Gordon and Miss Alice M. Stager have proven themselves to be very capable of directing it. The "stop" and "go" signals have flashed with wonderful accuracy and regularity while we crossed this Main Street. When any obstacle appeared on the road, Miss Stager and Dr. Gordon made sure we were given the right of way. It is because they took us by the hand and led us safely across a tricky intersection that we now hold them high in our hearts.

MISS MAUDE E. EMERY

MISS ELENA A. HAVIAR

Our homeroom teachers have directed us through the various lanes in our high school tour. We are ever grateful for the kindness, patience, and understanding they have given us. A special "thank you" from our gift card shop goes to each of them.

Shopkeepers

CARL WILSON
President

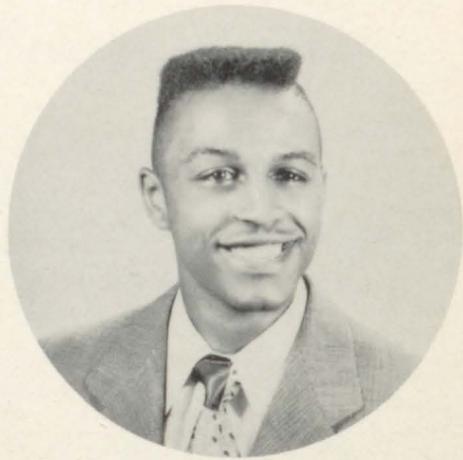

DORIS NORINSKY
Vice-President

Our shopkeepers, the class officers, are a level-headed group, perfect for the tough job of keeping a business going. They have figuratively kept us out of the red, for they were never bankrupt of ideas that had our interests first. While they were keeping us, the customers, happy, they also made sure we were always right. This quartet has done a good job for which we are deeply grateful. Because of them, the stores on Main Street are flourishing enterprises.

Department . . . Up First

During Business Hours

This has been one of the most outstanding stores we have visited while on Main Street. From the "pro's" to the promotion department, each employee has seen his job clearly and done it well. No one tried for individual sales records, but all tried to keep the efficiency of the establishment at its highest level. Baseball, basketball, football, track, fencing, cross country, swimming, twirling, and cheerleading have been the departments that make up a well-stocked and well-balanced athletic store.

Just as the Merchants' Association sponsors the activities of its members, so have our advisors, Mr. Irving Seid and Miss Isabella Watters, sponsored us during four years of many varied activities. These two were always there when one of our plans needed an extra push.

Though no sign proclaimed that they were the guiding force on our trip, we never doubted it for a moment. Without Mr. Seid and Miss Watters, the road would have held many detours.

With the skill of shoppers for large stores, our class officers have preceded us down Main Street picking out the very best "buys". All the choices they have made for us were wonderful bargains, for all they cost was co-operation. That was something these four inspired us to give. After all, when your shopper comes through with one big deal after another, you can't help but know that he's right for the job.

You have friends."

NOW FEATURING

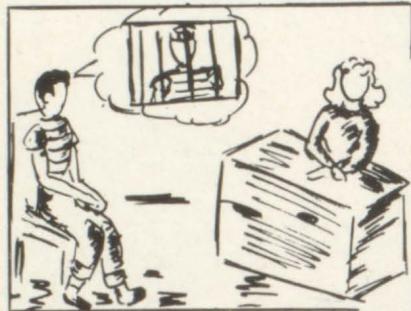

Local Color . . .

OFFICE

We gave our all and always thanked-em,
Safe behind their inner sanctum.
But now this hallowed counter space
Scares only Freshmen into place.

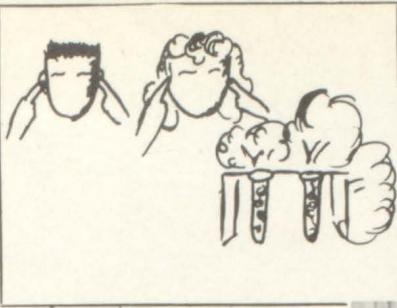

ROOM 100

"To Room 100," said the notice slip.
But was it cut or scholarship?
Maybe honors or maybe truant,
Am I O.K., or am I ruin-t?

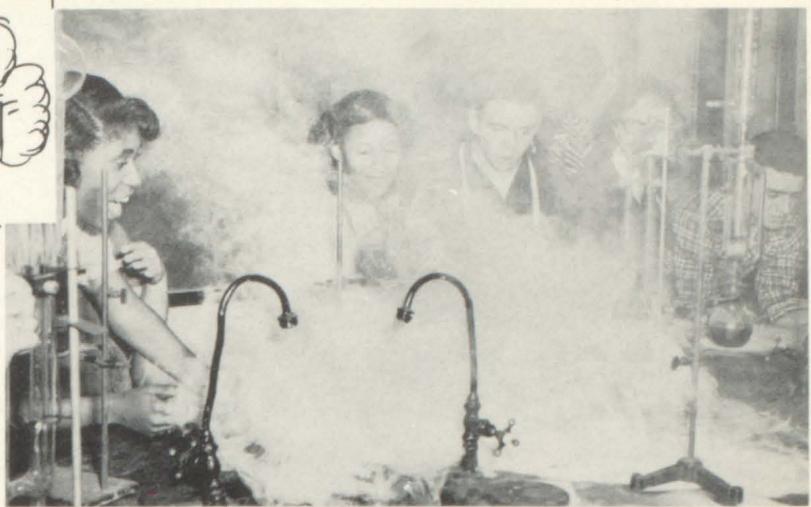

LATENESS

"Oh, Mr. Seid, please no detention;
Lateness was not my intention.
I have an excuse so pure and sweet:
I stopped to help someone cross the street."

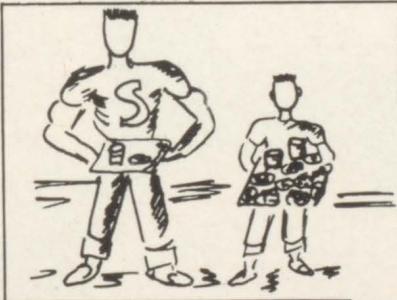

CHEM LAB

We follow directions sure and calm,
It's Borax Beads we're after.
If the thing goes off like the atom-bomb
There'll be nothing left but laughter.

GIRLS' LOCKERS

The missiles in the air
Come to her as a shocker.
It's not an air-raid—
She just opened her locker!

CAFETERIA

Vitamin "A" for atrocious attack,
Vitamin "B" for blade in the back,
Vitamin "L" for loudest laugh,
We introduce the South Side Cafe!

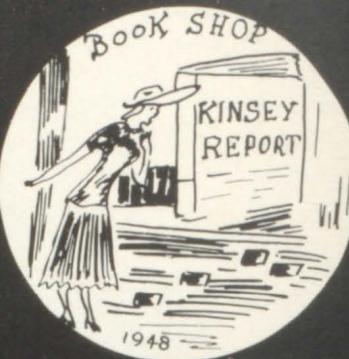

Hall of Records . . .

PROLOGUE
While we studied our lessons, and changed class by the bell,
Whole armies were conquered and governments fell.
Here's what happened in the world, to the wise and the fool,
While we studied tests for four years in school.

FRESHMEN: 1948
In the Democratic Party there was a split,
Jackie Robinson came to Brooklyn to hit.
The great snow storm left us in a pickle,
Mrs. Kasenkina fled the hammer and sickle.
Gallup was amazed at Truman's election,
We wonder that Ghandi was an assassin's selection.
Joe Louis from the ring officially retired,
Israel was born when Britain's lease expired.
"Streetcar Named Desire" was a hit on the stage,
"Ballerina" and TV were the entertainment rage.
The Marshall Plan went into action,
Wallace joined the Progressive faction.
Someone non-stop flew round the world,
And Kinsey's shocking report unfurled.

SOPHOMORES: 1949
Axis Sally and Tokyo Rose were convicted,
On Coplon and Hiss were sentences inflicted.
An Achilles heel felled Joe DiMaggio,
Aly wed Rita of the skilled adagio.
The hot-rods began a new type of blitz,
Drive-ins were dubbed passion pits.
Pyramid Clubs went around,
Miners refused to go underground.
The Reds seized Cardinal Mindszenty,
Russia's A-bomb scared us in the Land of Plenty.
Cerdan's KO of Zale was terrific,
In the theater we hailed "South Pacific."
Durocher switched from his Bums, the Brooks.

JUNIORS: 1950

Bergman and Rosellini to Italy trekked,
Faye Emerson was known for her gowns V-necked.
Canasta was the game the ladies adored,
With Jerry and Dagmar we were never bored.
An H-bomb we had in war to back us,
Our boys were called into the Korean fracas.
New Yorkers hired a man to make rain,
The Reds gave Senator McCarthy a pain.
The Channel was the aim of Shirley Mae France,
Flying saucers caused many a second glance.
Charlestons and flappers became big hits,
Commies were tried by Judge Liebowitz.
Bantam Ben Hogan played golf once more,
Death's messenger reached George Bernard Shaw.

SENIORS: 1951

West Pointers violated the honor system,
Truman told a music critic he'd fist him.
S.S.'s athletes were all-around champs,
On crime Kefauver put tight clamps.
The boys' bright colors certainly shocked us,
The high cost of living repeatedly rocked us.
Fight upsets were a dime a dozen,
Rebel flags marked our Southern cousin.
While the treaty with Japan was being drawn,
Korea was still very much war-torn.
Kansas' head was under flood water,
The Iranian crisis grew tauter and tauter.
Sugar Ray lost, but regained his crown,
McArthurs' recall caused a stir all aroun'.

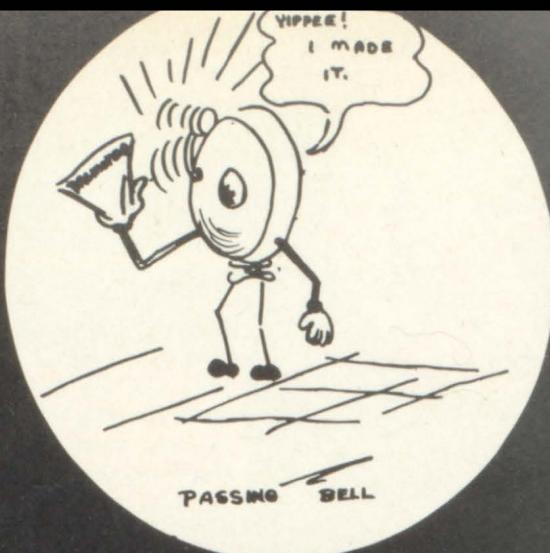

EPILOGUE

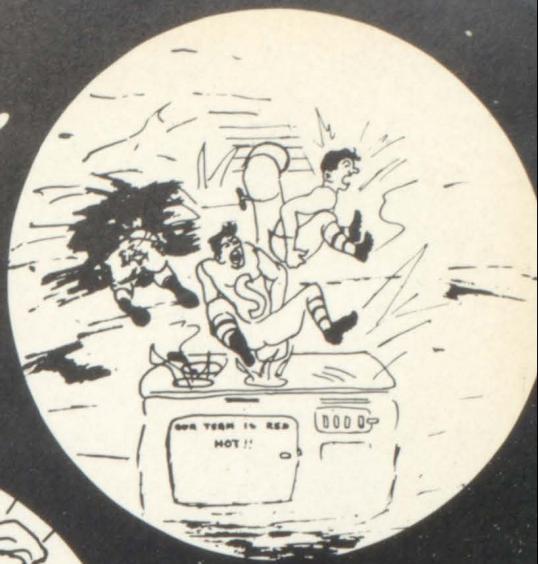

Now four years are done, and we spot our place,
In this changing world, with its furious pace.
We, too, are part of this unceasing time,
And that is the moral of our little rhyme!

Fresh Puns from -

Main Street Bake Shoppe

Ye Old Small Fry

Fluffy-haired Richard,
The "Sherlock Holmes" Becker,
From the very beginning
He was some heart wrecker.

With a heart like Paula's
You couldn't be mean.
No one could be nicer
Than this Bernstein.

That's Geraldine
Saying a prayer,
And it's not because
She wants Blacker hair.

Ruby couldn't even live
Without trees, I'm sure you see;
Cause without a growing trunk,
A Branch couldn't be.

Here's a girl who's named Vernice,
Her last name it is Brown.
For all her many kindly deeds
She deserves a golden crown.

Yes, my name is Vera,
I'm as cute as I can be.
Diacheysn is my last name,
But it won't always be.

You know me as Carl
And so do all the rest.
I'm a Du-err of many favors
And always full of zest.

This Georgia state beauty
Is not worried in the least;
If you'd like to know her last name
Then buy a pack of yeast.

You'd search many an ocean oyster
To find a Pearl like this.
If it's quality you're looking for,
A Galex couldn't miss.

Don't you envy Betty?
She has something on the world.
She was already born
A little "Gibson" girl.

Who am I?
Why Natalie, you know.
My last name is seen
On the Goldberg Show.

A tribute to the Henderson's
To school she comes so early.
In everything she does she's known
As most efficient Shirley.

Here's our little Mickey,
Oh, my what a flirt.
But without a Horton
There'd be no iced desert.

Rita and Taki Junos
Sailing across the sea,
If they hadn't come to America
How great the loss would be.

For this blond Joan
Whose name is Leivonen,
All the boys rush out
To start telephonin'.

Joan's so cute
She's a lovely Luciana,
Her beauty flows like
The river Susquehanna.

Shoppe . . .

Gerry has a special gift
That many think quite rare.
That's one thing that she and
Virginia Mayo share.

A nice little girl with a pretty curl,
Vivian is quite a cutie.
And though her name implies it,
You'll never find her Moody.

Here's laughing Charlie
Smiling at you;
From the way he looks
He's Moore than happy, too.

Whenevers you think of Gladys
It always is a treat,
Just like the "Muller" products
She simply can't be beat.

Phyllis is the beauty
In this picture as you see.
She's the youngest member of
The Ordyk family.

Allan takes life easy
He likes to swim a lot.
He's one of the best men on the team
And you all call him "Oll".

No one could be cuter
Than our little "Teddy" bear;
To find a boy just like him
Is certainly quite rare.

Use Malice as the stem
And then remove the "m".
Add Pires on to this,
And you've got a lovely Miss.

This little Riik
Is a cute little trick.
She knows what's right,
Cause in French her name's "light".

Maryann is oh so happy,
She wants to play with you;
But typical of the Schepige's,
She's never acting blue.

The Schmalberg's like
To put on shows.
Here is Janice
In a cute little pose.

You will find me
In the "Janet" Shop.
Sekac is the manager
And he's my pop.

"Lo" and behold
This "rraine" is so needed;
The Steckert's wanted it,
And the weather man heeded.

Virginia is beautiful,
Especially when it's Spring.
Birds gather in Van Nest
And there begin to sing.

Lois sitting in the snow,
Oh, what a funny sight.
But you will have to now agree
She couldn't be more Wright.

Innocent little Trudie
Acts like a socialite;
No matter what our Trudie does,
She's always in the Wright.

Farewell

It's been a pleasant trip—this tour of Main Street. Every "store" which we visited had something worthwhile to offer. Every "purchase" we made was of an article with a life-long guarantee. Friends and knowledge were two of the biggest values which we got for extremely reasonable prices.

Although we have come to a turning point in the road, we shall never forget this particular part of it. For this was our main street, South Side High School.

Congratulations to the Graduating Classes of 1952
